CRIMES AND CRIMINALS

Working the Murderers and Thieves
Off Into Eternity

Doc Walker Pays the Penalty—Montana Horse Thieves Strung Up—
Two Wife Murderers to Hang July 24—Other Crimes.

TEXARKANA, Ark., June 28.—Doc Walker was hanged here today.

The crime which he expiated on the gallows was one of the most cold-blooded in the history of Miller County. It was committed in January, on the Jack Roberts plantation, twelve miles below Texarkana, Ark. On the Saturday previous to the killing, Doc Walker and his victim, Lucius Grant, both negroes, had traded vests and shoes. On the Monday following Walker went to the plantation where Grant, in company with a fellow-laborer, was working, and demanded the return of his vest and shoes. Grant refused to exchange back, when Walker drew his gun and covered him with it. Grant still refused. The third party told Walker to lower his gun, which he did, but immediately raised it again, and told Grant to give up the articles or he would shoot. Grant still refused, saying, "Wait a minute, till I come back," and started toward the house. As he walked away Walker fired. The charge of buckshot took effect between the shoulders and passed clear through the body of the victim. Death resulted instantly. The negro who witnessed the affair hurried to Trigg's Mills, where Roberts was working, and told him what had occurred. Roberts armed himself and started for the scene, but met Walker on the road, coming toward town, and ordered him to disarm, which he did without second warning. Roberts brought him to town and turned him over to the Sheriff, who placed him in jail, where he has since been confined. The condemned man met his fate bravely. Two thousand people witnessed the execution.

Horse Thieves Killed.

HELENA, M. T., June 28.—Ed. Owens and St. Nickerson, two horse thieves, who recently stole eight horses from the Benton & Billings Stage Company, at Cedar Springs Station, in Meagher Co., were overhauled and killed last Sunday by a party of cowboys and all the horses recovered, together with the two ridden by the thieves. It is hoped this prompt and effective action of the cowboys will break up the bad gang of thieves which has infested the Mussel Shell country for some time.

Sentence to Hang.

NEW ORLEANS, June 28.—Governor McEnry to-day approved the sentences in the case of two wife murderers in this city, and directed that they be hanged on July 25. Kendrick Holland, one of the condemned, is a black brute of the lowest type. He was a desperado, garrotter and burglar, who worked in a negro gambling saloon in the slums of Franklin street. Hannah Glover, his wife, was playing cards with a party of negroes in the saloon, when, not winning as rapidly as he thought she should, after an unheeded reprimand, Holland drew his pistol and shot her in the head, killing her almost instantly. His excuse was that she, being his wife, was his property, and he had a right to do with her what he pleased, even to killing her if she disobeyed him. He will doubtless die under the impression that he was justified in maintaining domestic discipline in the way he did. Victor Elsi, the other condemned, is a white man, who stabbed and killed his wife, Delia McCarty, on Mardi Gras morning three years ago. He was lazy and incapable and she worked as a servant and gave him her earnings. The alleged cause of the crime was jealousy, but the defense was insanity. If hanged it will be the first time a white man has been hanged for murder in this State since Governor War-mouth hanged three Sicilians in 1871.

Will Hang September 25.

SALEM, Ore., June 28.—Joseph Drake, the negro convicted of assassinating David Swartz, was sentenced yesterday to be hanged September 25. James Henry, his accomplice, who turned State's evidence, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree and was sentenced to imprisonment for life.

Whisky Gave Him Away.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 28.—A man named Luke Shane was arrested here yesterday for drunkenness, and late developments go to show that he is probably the murderer of Dr. Collins, the rich farmer who was killed at Osborn, De Kalb County, a few weeks since. Collins was killed in a most brutal manner and his body thrown into an old well, after which the house was ransacked and a large amount of money secured. The Sheriff of De Kalb County arrived late last night, and says the evidence against Shane is of the strongest character, and that he will no doubt be convicted.

A Fiend Captured.

TYLER, Tex., June 28.—An attempt was made last evening to wreck the west bound passenger train on the Texas & St. Louis Railway at a point a mile west of Winona. Several large ties were securely fastened to the rails. The train approached just at twilight, and the obstruction was seen by the engineer just in time to shut the throttle and jump. The train was thrown from the track but no serious damage was done. As the engineer jumped he saw a negro running to the bushes. He gave chase and captured him. The negro was taken on board and brought to this city. Indignation among citizens runs high. The negro is jailed and an extra guard is watching over him. There is danger of lynching.

A Negro Lynched for Slander.

COLUMBUS, Miss., June 28.—Near Caledonia, Aleck Leach, colored, was hanged by lynchers and his body riddled with bullets. Leach had made disparaging remarks about several respectable white ladies, which led to the lynching.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The Senate met at 11 o'clock, but it was 11:15 before a quorum was in attendance.

The Secretary of the Navy sent in a communication transmitting a complete report on the Suez Canal in response to a Senate resolution.

Mr. Pendleton's resolution relative to the codification of laws concerning the Signal Service Bureau and asking the Secretary of War for a report as to the propriety of continuing the bureau under the supervision of the War Department went over temporarily.

Mr. Butler gave notice that on Monday he will ask a vote on the resolution to investigate the condition of the New York National Bank.

The House Bill granting the right of way through the Indian Territory to the Southern Kansas Railway was passed.

A joint resolution providing for the settlement of accounts with Mobile & Ohio Railway was also passed.

HOUSE.

After some unimportant business, by unanimous consent, Mr. Hancock (Texas) presented the conference report on the Pension Appropriation.

Southern and Central Pacific Stock.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 28.—Charles Crocker, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, says the statement attributed to him in an interview as telegraphed East, that he could not borrow twenty-five cents on Southern Pacific bonds, is absolutely false. Continuing, he said: "I am loaning money now on Southern Pacific as collateral at ninety cents. They have never been refused in this market at that rate. Had I made any such statement as that it would have been suicidal, which is at once proof of its falsehood. The Central Pacific is not embarrassed, and will probably pay its employees this month as usual."

ASIATIC CHOLERA.

A Post-Mortem Examination Leaves No Doubt Upon That Point.

TOULON, June 28.—Fires were kept burning in the streets all last night for purifying purposes. A post-mortem examination of two bodies has been made, and in each case were signs of Asiatic cholera. The heart was shrunk and without vesicles; the blood was drawn into the lungs; peritonitis was contracted and the interior of the stomach was contracted and shrunken. Spots of a yellow hue were found on the intestines. The kidneys were affected, but the liver was intact.

A Franco-Chinese Fight.

PARIS, June 28.—Hanoi dispatches state that the Chinese regulars, with artillery, entrenched themselves at Langson in violation of the treaty. They attacked the French forces on Monday on the march, killing seven and wounding forty-two. General Negrier immediately set out with reinforcements. General Milot telegraphs that the French numbered 700. "We are on the way to Langson. Though greatly outnumbered we routed the Chinese. The French lost two officers."

PARIS, June 28.—There is a report that the French forces near Langson were surprised in a narrow defile and nearly cut to pieces.

Driven by a Dead Man.

RICHFIELD SPRINGS, June 28.—The severe storm which visited this place yesterday caused much damage in the surrounding country. During the storm Jack Watte was driving a load of lumber to Springfield. When about three miles from the village a bolt of lightning knocked down one of his horses and a second killed Watte. The horse recovered, arose and the team took the wagon to the home of Watte's father, and when it arrived at the door the hands of the dead man still grasped the lines. The fluid appears to have run around his body and then jumped to the ground, which it tore up for several feet.

Applications of the Press.

CHICAGO, June 28.—The sub-committee on Press of the Democratic National Convention is in session this morning at the Palmer House, tabulating applications for seats. Nearly six thousand have already been received. Only a small proportion of these can be accommodated with desk privilege.

A Bomb.

VIENNA, June 28.—A bomb filled with a powerful explosive was found in the shrubbery near the exhibition rotunda. All public buildings are carefully watched, owing to fears of outrages by anarchists. The main sewers, which the anarchists threatened, are repeatedly inspected.

Failed to Explode.

LONDON, June 28.—A narrow escape from dynamite disaster is reported from Bradford. An infernal machine filled with dynamite and powder was placed on the street car track. Over this a car filled with people passed, but the machine failed to explode.

The Swim of Death.

FINDLAY, O., June 28.—Frederick Mueller, living in the southeastern part of this county, was drowned while competing with several neighbors in a swimming contest.

MITCHELL AND SULLIVAN

The Former Suffering From a Severe Attack of Fever.

However, in a Dispatch He Indicates that He Will Come to Time, and Should He be Defeated, He Will Have a Good Excuse.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Regarding the illness of Charles Mitchell, the English pugilist, Dr. Brown said to-night:

"Mitchell was a very sick man. He was suffering with what is called intermittent fever, fever and ague and chills and fever. His temperature was 103. I prescribed quinine to break the fever and bromide of potassium and aconite to quiet his nerves. His system was in bad condition generally. He was very anxious to have me cure him before Monday. Another attack is due to-morrow, and if the quinine he takes will ward it off, as I believe it will, he will undoubtedly be better on Monday, but not as strong as he was before Saturday last."

Mitchell was sitting in the parlor of Price's Hotel last evening playing cards with the landlady's daughter. His boyish-looking face was haggard and his lips full of fever blisters.

"I never felt better in my life than I did before this deuced disease set in," he said. "I've lost seven pounds since then. Previous to last Saturday I would have undertaken to knock down an ox. I just got up out of bed at 5 o'clock this afternoon and I'm going to try hard not to get back into it again."

"Charley," said Billy Madden, "there is no use talking. You won't be able to tackle Sullivan. You are not in a condition for it."

"I tell you," said Mitchell to the reporter, "that I'll fight Sullivan if the fever doesn't come on to-morrow. It's due at noon. Two hours before that time I am going to take an extra dose of quinine to keep it off. My recuperation out here in this fine ocean air has been so great and I have trained so well that my sickness, if it doesn't recur to-morrow, will have very little effect on my condition on Monday. The match is not yet off and won't be off until I find out whether I am to be well or sick to-morrow. I have never been sicker than I was on Saturday night and if it hadn't been for the attention of the ladies in the hotel I don't know how I could have pulled through."

To-night Mitchell telegraphed from Long Branch to Al. Smith:

"Have intermittent fever. Feel well to-day. If same to-morrow will box."

Earlier in the day Madden telegraphed to Al. Smith that Mitchell had malaria. Madden wanted to know whether Sullivan would consent to a scientific exhibition set, on that point. He refused, saying he would engage in no hippodrome.

When it seemed certain that Mitchell would not be able to spar, Al. Smith had a consultation with Jack Burke, the young pugilist from England, who once fought a draw with Mitchell, and if Mitchell doesn't come to time Burke will probably stand up before Sullivan.

Harry Hill claimed that his man, Bill England, should have the opportunity, and Sullivan was asked by wire to say what he would do with either man. He answered to-night:

"Will meet either England or Burke, the man having the best of it to take the whole house, or else not to give them better than twenty per cent, or not over twenty-five."

It is claimed in behalf of Burke that he has shown himself as good a man as Mitchell, and that if Mitchell does not appear Burke would be the next best man to draw a crowd and make the match interesting. This consideration seems likely to decide the matter in his favor if it becomes necessary to find a man to take Mitchell's place.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The Daily News received the following dispatch to-day:

"LONG BRANCH, N. J., June 28.—Have entirely recovered. Shall box with Sullivan at Madison Square Garden Monday night sure (Signed)."

"CHARLES MITCHELL."

"MAUD IS PERFECT"

Vanderbilt Says, "and Times Will be Better After Election."

NEW YORK, June 28.—Regarding J. I. Case's challenge to match Jay-Eye-See against any horse for a race or exhibition heat, Mr. Vanderbilt said last night:

"Why anybody should have impudence enough to allude to me as a challenged party, knowing I never allow Maud S. to be trotted in a race, is past my comprehension. I keep Maud for my own amusement. I am satisfied she is the fastest horse in the world. She is at least the handsomest. There are horses that I would not have even if they could trot a mile a minute. Maud is perfect in everything."

Mr. Vanderbilt then branched off onto the stock market and said:

"After election we shall have a return of confidence and better times. I know lots of people who are foolishly converting their assets into money and placing it in vaults where it can earn nothing. Why, I know a man who has a lot of specie stored in his house and a burglar alarm to all his windows and doors, and sleeps with a revolver under his pillow. His second night's experience was a ludicrous one. One of the family came in late, and not understanding the alarm, set it off. Out came the pistol and he banged away, hitting a valuable mirror, creating a panic in his household. Oh, no, I shall not use Maud S. for other than road purposes this year."

A Singular Accident.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 28.—Shortly after the east bound passenger train on the Chicago & Alton left Independence last night, and while the train was running at full speed, the crown sheet of the boiler was blown off and the locomotive disabled. Henry Simonds, the fireman, was thrown from the cab and bruised and scalded. He may die. Dick Stewart, the engineer, received painful bruises. The passengers were undisturbed. The train was delayed two hours.

LIGHTNINGS FREAKS.

Young Couple's Hair Breath Escape—A Woman's Fate.

WHEELING, June 28.—While Wm. Raber and a young lady were buggy riding last evening, a flash of lightning tore up the road for twenty-five yards in the rear of their buggy. They hurried on to a covered bridge, which they had scarcely entered when a flash struck the bridge, destroying it, and killing the horse. Neither the man or woman was hurt.

A WOMAN'S TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

LITCHFIELD, O., June 28.—Mrs. A. Fritz, a prominent and wealthy lady of this place, last evening while walking along the street during a heavy storm, lightning struck her in the face, followed a watch chain from the neck to the waist, where the current divided and followed each of the lower limbs, tearing the shoes from her feet. The watch and chain were melted and the body blackened almost to a crisp, yet she may recover.
